What celebrities are drinking

Glamorous Hollywood parties require lots of planning, but now 267 Infusions has made celebrating easier by creating a party in a bottle — no bartender required! Marrying premium spirits with ripened fruit and spices, the eight flavors range from vodka infused with olives to Barbados rum with mango. If you really want to spice things up, 267 Tequila has a kick with chili peppers! Simply chill it or pour over ice for the perfect cocktail. No wonder it was a winner backstage at the Grammys, where everyone from Jennifer Love Hewitt to Jamie Foxx scooped up bottles to take home. $60, bozspirits.com.
